

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty and concern for one's fellow man; and,

WHEREAS, Edna Bauman is a native of South Dakota--born in De Smet, South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, Edna has been employed at the Veterans Administration Medical Center in Fort Meade, South Dakota, as a register nurse; and,

WHEREAS, Edna has devoted her life to the betterment of her community, the caring and sharing with family and friends and the day-to-day giving and loving which make South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

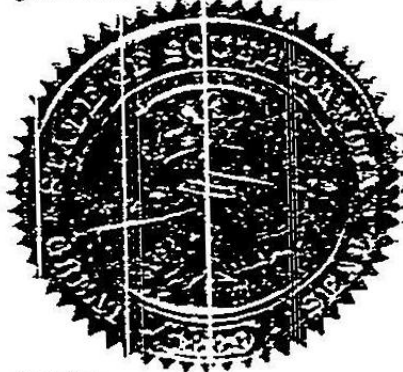

WHEREAS, Edna is a devoted wife to her husband, Donald, a good mother to their three sons, Kenneth, Larry and Steven, and a loving grandmother; and,

WHEREAS, On December 31, after more than 26 years of service to the medical center and this great state, Edna is retiring and taking time to travel:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim December 30, 1988, as in South Dakota, and I join her many friends and relatives in wishing her good luck in the future.
